Ruby Ruiz, DOHS Student Board Representative reported on the following student activities; Perfect attendance drawing; CAHSEE testing and prep classes; Open House.

PUBLIC COMMENT SESSION:

President Walker declared a public hearing session open for comments, presentations or requests on matters not listed on this agenda.

Neil MacGaffey addressed the board regarding the new board policy related to student academic recognition. He stated that he is concerned that the change will take away honor and recognition of students who have worked hard to achieve the top goal. He encouraged the board to re-consider their decision.

Blanca Preciado, CUHS parent expressed concern over the high price of Gatorade and why ASB has had to move the vending machines. Ricardo Silva, CUHS student reported that there had been no communication with administration as to why this was done.
